

PRESS RELEASE

Prime Engineering Hires Human Resources Manager

Atlanta, Georgia, July 2, 2007 – Prime Engineering, Inc. has hired Ms. Tasia Grant, PHR to fill the position of Human Resources Manager. Ms. Grant, an 11-year veteran of the human resources profession, most recently worked for Hardin Construction Company, LLC as a Human Resources, Training, and Development Manager. In addition to her multi-year background in the engineering and construction industry, Ms. Grant has honed her professional skills during previous positions with Kaiser Permanente and American University/Washington College of Law.

About Prime Engineering, Inc.

Prime Engineering, Inc. is an employee-owned, full-service consulting firm based in Atlanta, Georgia. Established in January 1990, our firm has grown 20% annually and has evolved into a market-focused organization. We offer fully integrated planning, surveying, engineering, architecture, and construction project approaches while concentrating on specific areas of expertise:

Aviation • Design-Build • Facilities • Industrial Municipal • Site Development • Surveying • Transportation

For more information please contact:

Sarah Mackley, Marketing Manager

T: (404) 425-7100

F: (404) 425-7101

info@prime-eng.com

www.prime-eng.com

\\prime.prime-eng.com\pei\Marketing\Artwork\Web\Prime-Eng\Press Releases\Press Release_07-02-07 (New Hires - Grant).doc